Dear Xiaofeng Fan,

Thank you for your support to be one of our invited speakers for the 10th International Conference on Computational Physics (ICCP10) to be held in Macao SAR, China from 16 to 20 January 2017.

You are cordially invited to present an invited talk at Mini-symposium A5: Design of Advanced Functional Materials in this conference co-organized by the Physical Society of Macao and International Union of Pure and Applied Physics.

Please accept our invitation and we look forward to seeing you in Macao, China for a joyful and fruitful event.

Yours sincerely,

ICCP10 Organizing Committee
